MQHRA Past President Randy Weidner loses 12 horses in F5 tornado near Moore, Oklahoma

Quarter Horse and Thoroughbred trainer Randy Weidner lost his entire stable of 12 horses, his truck, trailer, tack and racing equipment and nearly all of his personal belongs in the Moore, Oklahoma F5 tornado on Monday, May 20th. Weidner and his girlfriend Lindsay White narrowly escaped the tornado that swept through Celestial Acres Training Center where about 100 horses were stabled. Weidner and White heeded the advice from storm chasers who urged them to leave immediately. They drove away from the farm with the tornado visible in their rearview mirror. Prior to the tornado, Weidner was preparing to bring his racing stock to Minnesota for the Canterbury Park live meet.

Minnesota horsemen and the entire Canterbury Park family are helping Randy and Lindsay (Sky) to get back on their feet again. The "Randy Weidner Catastrophe Trust" has been set up at Wells Fargo bank in Shakopee. Donations to the fund can be made in person or mailed to Wells Fargo, 380 S. Marschall Rd., Shakopee, MN, 55379. A fundraiser will be held Wednesday, June 5th in Silks bar at Canterbury. ☺
