Canterbury Park Wrap up

By Lori Locken

Live racing wrapped up at Canterbury Park on Saturday, September 14 with the following news ripped from the pages of Canterbury Park press releases:

Stacy Charette-Hill won the quarter horse training title with 19 wins from 37 starts. Her starters finished in the top three at a 92 percent rate. Charette-Hill won Canterbury's two most prestigious quarter horse races, the $54,100 Canterbury Park Quarter Horse Derby and the $133,525 Mystic Lake Northlands Futurity. Jorge Torres was the leading quarter horse jockey with 20 wins. Brenda Reiswig of Bismarck, N.D. repeated as leading quarter horse owner with eight wins. Stone Cottrell, winner of the Skip Zimmerman and Dash In A Flash Stakes, was named quarter horse of the meet. He is trained by Charette-Hill.

2013 Canterbury Leading Quarter Horse Trainer: Stacy Charette-Hill
2013 Canterbury Leading Quarter Jockey: Jorge Torres
2013 Canterbury Leading Quarter Horse Owner: Brenda Reiswig
2013 Canterbury Quarter Horse of the Meet: Stone Cottrell

Canterbury Park officials announced that Eric Halstrom is returning to the Shakopee, MN racetrack as Vice President of Racing Operations. Halstrom was employed at Canterbury for 10 years from 1997 through 2008 before accepting a position at Fair Grounds Race Course and Slots. Halstrom, 44, served as Vice President and General Manager of Racing for the New Orleans racetrack since 2008. His resignation from Fair Grounds, owned by Churchill Downs Incorporated, is effective Oct. 1. He will begin his duties at Canterbury Park Oct. 21.

Finally, in other news, more than $14,000 was collected at a fundraiser held for Becky McDowell, a trainer and former jockey who was injured in a gate incident late in the meet. According to MN HBPA Director, Patrice Underwood, several checks have been received for McDowell since the event. Thanks to all. ☺
